PREPARE FOR TOMORROW'S TAX CHALLENGES

As a tax professional, you will need the skills to research and navigate the steadily changing and increasingly complex internal revenue code and other tax platforms. As demands for transparency increase, you need the knowledge to confidently advise executives and organizations on a wide range of critical issues.

D'Amore-McKim's MS in Taxation offers a rigorous curriculum that will help you sharpen your analytical skills and command of current tax legislation.

Analytical and technical skills.

Our curriculum is designed to help you develop the skills and tax code expertise required to deliver innovative tax solutions. You'll navigate complex tax laws and hone your research skills.

Human skills. Our esteemed faculty will help you develop interpersonal and communication skills through your class projects and discussions. The ability to inspire trust and develop strong rapport with people are skills that will be crucial to success.

Preparing for the CPA or CFP. If you were an undergraduate accounting major, you can earn the additional credits to meet the 150-credit hour requirement to sit for the Certified Public Accountant exam.

Northeastern University

Founded in 1898, Northeastern is a global research university and the recognized leader in experience-powered lifelong learning. Our world-renowned experiential approach empowers our students, faculty, alumni, and partners to create impact far beyond the confines of discipline, degree, and campus.

Our locations—in Boston; the Massachusetts communities of Burlington and Nahant; Charlotte, North Carolina; London; the San Francisco Bay Area; Seattle; Toronto; and Vancouver—are nodes in our growing global university system. Through this network, we expand opportunities for flexible, student-centered learning and collaborative, solutions-focused research.

Northeastern's comprehensive array of undergraduate and graduate programs—in on-campus, online, and hybrid formats—lead to degrees through the doctorate in nine colleges and schools. Among these, we offer more than 140 multidisciplinary majors and degrees designed to prepare students for purposeful lives and careers.
