

Graduate Certificate in Business Administration: Build your Own Curriculum

Your career, your curriculum— at your pace.

Designed to provide you with specialized knowledge in the specific area of business that interests you most, a Graduate Certificate in Business Administration can give you the power to create a curriculum to match your goals. You may select any four or five graduate business courses (12-15 credits)—just the courses you need to propel you toward your career goals and personal aspirations. Eligible graduates may apply their credits toward our Part-Time MBA program.
