

→ MS in International Management Part-time Curriculum

Develop cultural agility as you gain the experience required to navigate today's uncertain global economy.

The D'Amore-McKim Master of Science in International Management will empower you with the comprehensive knowledge you need to excel in the high-paced global marketplace that is rapidly changing due to technology and data. Through project-based work, you will develop a global mindset and gain critical skills as you become a resilient and agile leader equipped to handle the challenges organizations and businesses face when operating internationally.

CORE COURSES

Your courses may be completed at a flexible pace with typically two courses a term. Course offerings vary per semester, you are encouraged to work with your advisor when planning your schedule.

Required courses:

- INTB 6200: Managing the Global Enterprise
- INTB 6226: Becoming a Global Leader

Complete one of the following:

- STRT 6210: Global Workforce Metrics & Analysis
- INTB elective

Complete one of the following:

- INTB 6260: Advanced Topics in Global Management
- STRT 6200: Strategic Decision Making

One of the following courses:

- INNO 6200: Enterprise Growth and Innovation
- INTB 6230: International Field Study*
- MKTG 6212: International Marketing
- FINA 6204: International Financial Management
- INTB Elective

ELECTIVE COURSES

Tailor your elective coursework for your professional goals. You may choose any four graduate level business courses for which you meet the prerequisites.

Sample elective course options:

- SCHM 6201 Operations and Supply Chain Management
- HRMG 6200 Managing People and Organizations
- MKTG 6200 Creating and Sustaining Customer Markets
- INNO 6200 Enterprise Growth and Innovation
- FINA 6200 Value Creation through Financial Decision Making

► 20 MONTHS

*Can be taken in Spring or Summer by application. Coursework may be completed at a flexible pace but is usually completed in less than two years.

Please note that FINA 6200, FINA 6204, and MKTG 6212 have prerequisite course(s) that may be taken in place of electives.

You are encouraged to work with your academic advisor when planning your schedule as course offerings can vary per semester. The following is a sample curriculum and is subject to change.