Corporate Residency Statistics

TO BECOME A LEADER IN YOUR FIELD and accelerate your career, it's going to require immersive experiences, both inside and outside the classroom. At D'Amore-McKim, we believe that real-world experience deepens learning and discovery like nothing else can. That's why we require a corporate residency for our MS in Accounting/MBA. In your three-month residency, you won't be watching from the sidelines—you'll immerse yourself in the fast-paced day-to-day realities of working at a top accounting firm.
