

Graduate Certificate in Corporate Finance

CREATE SOUND FINANCIAL STRATEGIES

Smart financial leadership is the cornerstone of building value in today's dynamic business environment. Professionals with the analytical and strategic skills to create and implement an organization's financial strategy—and who can thrive making high-pressure, high-risk decisions—are sought after by employers.

Earning your Graduate Certificate in Corporate Finance from Northeastern University can help you advance your career in finance by building a cutting-edge skill set for business planning, financial analysis, and investment management. You'll build confidence through applied project work and case studies, learning directly from the experiences of our excellent faculty, who are seasoned financial experts, consultants, and thought leaders in the industry.

In just four courses—with the option to take a fifth course to expand your learning—you'll develop a deeper understanding of domestic and international markets, building a rich context for effective financial decision-making. Depending on the electives you choose, you'll have an opportunity to explore critical topics in greater depth, such as investment banking, mergers and acquisitions, and business turnarounds.

Your courses will reflect the latest advances in financial theory and practice, preparing you for a financial world that's increasingly global and driven by technology.

Northeastern's D'Amore-McKim School of Business prepares people and organizations to thrive in a global business environment of rapid-fire change driven by converging digital technologies. The school develops leaders and innovators who are proficient in human, data, and technological literacies; global in outlook and entrepreneurial in mindset; and invested in lifelong learning for themselves and their teams.

Northeastern University

Founded in 1898, Northeastern is a global research university and the recognized leader in experience-driven lifelong learning. Our world-renowned experiential approach empowers our students, faculty, alumni, and partners to create impact far beyond the confines of discipline, degree, and campus.

Our locations—in Boston; Charlotte, North Carolina; London; Portland, Maine; San Francisco; Seattle; Silicon Valley; Toronto; Vancouver; and the Massachusetts communities of Burlington and Nahant—are nodes in our growing global university system. Through this network, we expand opportunities for flexible, student-centered learning and collaborative, solutions-focused research.

Northeastern's comprehensive array of undergraduate and graduate programs—in a variety of on-campus and online formats—lead to degrees through the doctorate in nine colleges and schools. Among these, we offer more than 195 multi-discipline majors and degrees designed to prepare students for purposeful lives and careers.
